

RPCN Wall of Fame Winners 2015

The highlight of the evening will be inducting the first winners into our Entrepreneur Wall of Fame.

They include:

Consultant's Consultant – Luz Flores Lee, All of You Consulting

Luz Flores Lee shifted her woman-based coaching business to a successful Lean Six Sigma and team-building business. She contributed to a successful coaching book and is growing her business.

Entrepreneur of the Year – Jon Schull, e-NABLE

Jon Schull of the Rochester Institute of Technology founded the worldwide volunteer community organization e-NABLE, which connects those needing prosthetic hands with custom-fitted 3D hands.

Community Champion – Mary Sperr, Blue Dog Marketing/Town of Chili

Mary Sperr was elected president of the Gates Chili Chamber of Commerce this year and promotes businesses in her home town. She is also a member of the Chili Town Board. Mary has been an active member of the Hubbard Spring Garden Club for more than 20 years and served on the FoodLink board for six years.

Dave Young Dedicated Service Award – Steve Royal, Royal Associates

Steve Royal maintains the RPCN website, conducts the monthly Tech Forums and answers the RPCN office phone. RPCN thanks Steve for all his volunteer efforts on our behalf!

Linda Halliburton Friend of RPCN Award – Tom Frisk, N.Y.S. Dept. of Labor

Tom Frisk is a huge supporter of RPCN. He included RPCN as a presenting organization for the monthly NYS Self-Employment Assistance Program (SEAP), allowing RPCN to reach many individuals just starting their own small businesses.

Please join RPCN in congratulating all of our winners at the Gala on Tuesday, April 21. Tickets are $25 for RPCN members and $30 for guests. Reserve your tickets now at <http://rochesterconsultants.org/event-1873158>.

See you there!
